OBJECTION AND RESPONSE TO MOTION TO SET TIME FOR REPLY

Re-Print/Draphix, LLC (“Re-Print”), hereby submits the following objection and response to the motion by ClassroomDirect.com, LLC (“Classroom Direct”) to set time for a reply submission in connection with its motion to set aside the judgment of the Court dated July 12, 2005 (Doc # 33), dismissing this action with prejudice, as affirmed by the Court’s order dated August 30, 2005 (Doc. # 47).

Re-Print respectfully submits that sufficient information is now before the Court for disposition of Classroom Direct’s Rule 60(b) motion. Insofar as outstanding questions remain, those questions can be addressed directly by the Court through oral argument at its next regularly scheduled motion docket, and then, to the extent necessary, through additional briefing after that time.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Should Classroom Direct be permitted the opportunity to further brief its Rule 60(b) motion, Re-Print would ask in fairness that the Court allow a limited sur-reply, to be filed within 7 days and at a length of no more than 10 pages.

Dated: August 11, 2006
